

Cash first approaches in Glasgow

Faiza Hansraj-Jackson

What are cash first approaches?

Cash-first

Ready access to emergency income when someone has no money for food. To prevent future hardship this should be delivered alongside welfare rights and income maximisation advice and support.

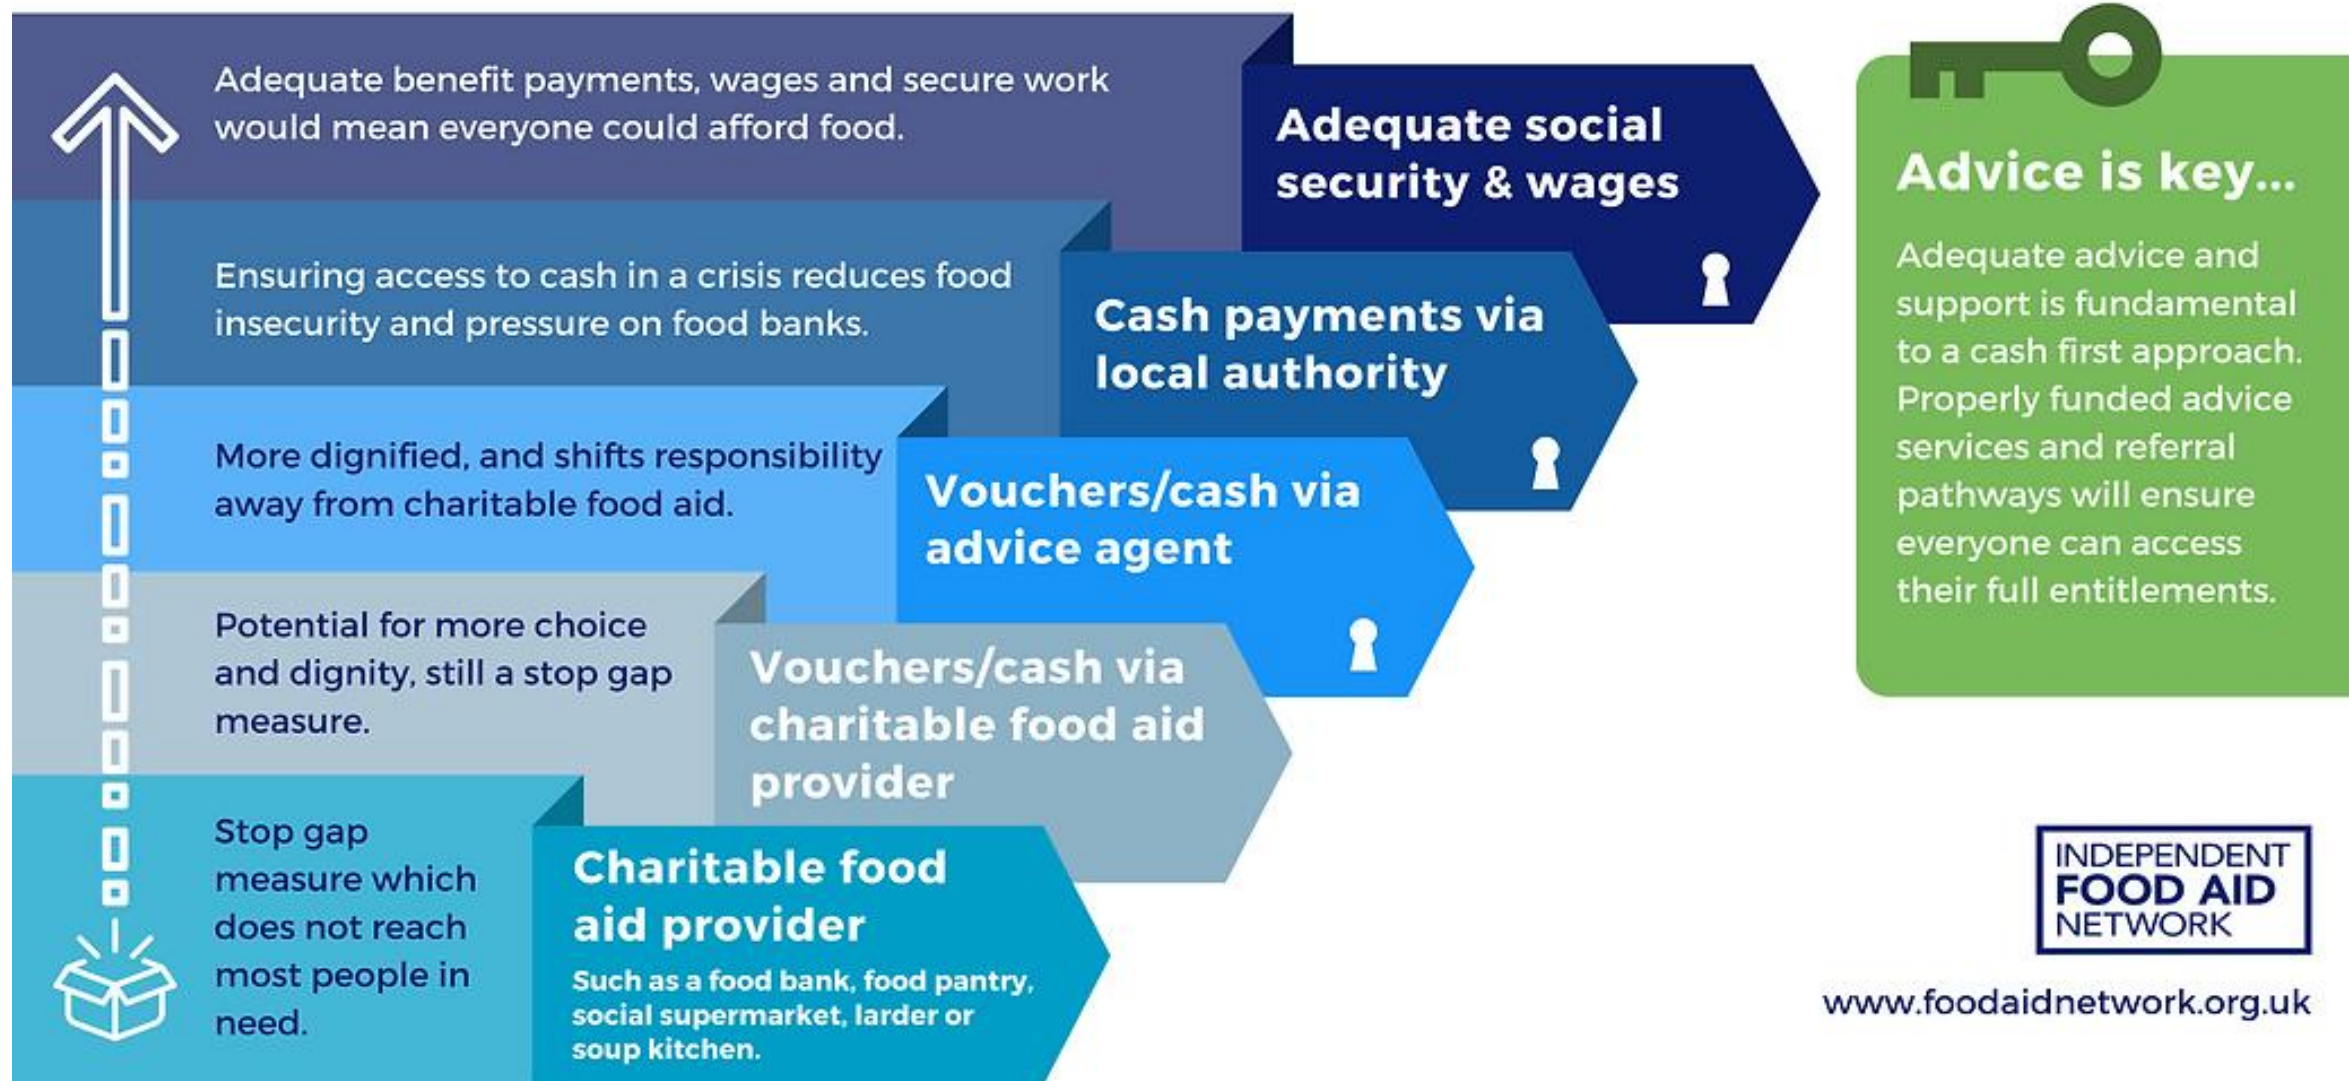

Prioritising income-focused crisis support with cash payments

Vouchers if cash payments aren't available

Advice and support to maximise income

Cash First: Ending the need for charitable food aid

Cash first approaches: priorities for year 2 and legacy planning

A better understanding of food insecurity across Glasgow

Promoting common referral pathway- Glasgow Helps

Capacity building: increase awareness of training and support available

Online toolkit: access to free training and resources, signposting to services

Cash first resources

Cash First approaches in Glasgow

Webpage

- Background to cash first approaches
- About the cash first pilot projects
- The importance of advice
- The importance of cash first referral leaflets
- Events

WHAT ARE Cash first approaches?

(p.s. not just giving out money!)

Concept explainer: What are cash first approaches?

Cash first approaches in Glasgow: reducing the need for foodbanks

Recorded webinars and slides

- Cash first approaches: reducing the need for food banks in Glasgow
- Money Counts training: a cash first approach to food insecurity
- Working with refugees and asylum seekers experiencing food insecurity
- Unlocking local resources in Glasgow: a guide to ALISS