

09:00 – 12:30

15 June 2005

St Andrew's in the Square,
1 St Andrew's Square, Glasgow G1 5PP

09:00	Registration and coffee
Session One
09:30	Welcome and introductions	Dr Carol Tannahill, Director, Glasgow Centre for Population Health and Prof Sir John Arbuthnott, Chair, Greater Glasgow NHS Board
10:00	'Ethos, civic conversations and the good life'	Prof Phil Hanlon, Professor of Public Health, University of Glasgow
10:10	'Simplicity and happiness'	Valerie Millar, Communications Manager, Glasgow Centre for Population Health
10:20	Round table discussion and feedback
10:50	Coffee break

Session Two

11:10	'The creation and destruction of health'	Dr Harry Burns, Director of Public Health, Greater Glasgow NHS Board
11:20	'Chaos and order – minding the future'	Dr Andrew Lyon, Converger, International Futures Forum
11:30	'Environments and behaviour'	Dr Carol Tannahill, Director, Glasgow Centre for Population Health
11:40	Round table discussion and feedback
12.10	Summary	Dr Jim McCormick, Director, Scottish Council Foundation
12:30	Lunch and close	