

09:00 – 12:30
30 November 2005
St Andrew's in the Square,
1 St Andrew's Square, Glasgow G1 5PP

PROGRAMME

09:00	Registration and coffee
09:30	Welcome and introduction	Dr Carol Tannahill, Director, Glasgow Centre for Population Health
Session One: Glasgow - past and present
09:50	Setting the scene	Prof Phil Hanlon, Professor of Public Health, University of Glasgow
10:00	Big trends	James Arnott, Senior Economic Development Officer, Glasgow City Council
10:05	From indicators to insights	Dr Anne Scoular, Clinical Research Fellow, MRC Social and Public Health Sciences Unit
10:10	Integrated public health picture	Bruce Whyte and David Walsh, Public Health Information Managers, NHS Health Scotland
10:30	Round table discussion and feedback
11:00	Coffee break

Session Two : Glasgow - the future
11:30	Glasgow's healthier future	Prof Phil Hanlon, Professor of Public Health, University of Glasgow
11:40	Round table discussion and feedback
12.20	Conclusion	GHFF participants
12:30	Closing remarks	Prof Sir John Arbutnott, Chair, Greater Glasgow NHS Board
Lunch

