

Glasgow's Healthier Future Forum 9

The Psychological, Social and Biological Determinants of Ill Health (pSoBid) Study

Thursday 25 February 2010

9.00 – 1.00pm

Hilton Grosvenor Hotel
Great Western Road, Glasgow

9.00 – 9.30	Registration Tea/Coffee
9.30 – 9.50	Welcome and Background to pSoBid Professor Carol Tannahill Director, Glasgow Centre for Population Health
9.50 – 10.10	Early life socioeconomic adversity and adult health Professor Chris Packard Director of R & D, NHS Greater Glasgow & Clyde
10.10 - 10.30	Effects of socioeconomic deprivation on atherosclerosis Dr Kevin A Deans Specialist Registrar, Glasgow Royal Infirmary
10.30 - 10.50	The interactions between deprivation, personality and psychological wellbeing Professor Keith Millar Professor of Medical Psychology, University of Glasgow
10.50 - 11.10	Tea/Coffee
11.15 – 11.45	Emerging study findings: Cognitive performance and socioeconomic status Early MRI scanning results Dr Jonathan Cavanagh Honorary Clinical Academic Consultant, University of Glasgow
11.45 – 12.15	Implications of study findings for population health Dr Harry Burns Chief Medical Officer, Scottish Government
12.15 – 12.55	Panel discussion Dr G David Batty (Chair) Wellcome Trust Fellow, MRC Social and Public Health Sciences Unit, Glasgow
1.00	Concluding Remarks Lunch