

Glasgow Centre for Population Health
Third floor, Olympia Building
Bridgeton Cross
Glasgow, G40 2QH

Additional maps:

Wider Location Map: www.google.co.uk/maps/@55.8490216,-4.2267801,17z

City Centre bus journey planning maps:

www.firstgroup.com/ukbus/glasgow/journey_planning/maps

Transport links:

Railway: The Bridgeton Cross station is directly adjacent to the Olympia Building, 4 trains per hour each way to Glasgow Argyle St (3 min); Glasgow Central Station (5 min); SECC (10 min)

Bus: Excellent bus routes outside the rail station with six services per hour linking to the city centre, many more routes operate in the surrounding streets.

The stops outside the station are served by First bus: services 18, 46, 64/64A, 65, 263

Timetables: www.firstgroup.com/ukbus/glasgow

Network map: www.firstgroup.com/ukbus/glasgow/journey_planning/maps

Cycling: There are Next Bike locations at: Bridgeton Cross, Station No 8441; Glasgow Green (Templeton Street), Station No 8421; Emirates Arena, Station No 8428.

More information: www.nextbike.co.uk/en/glasgow/information

Parking

There is public cycle parking at Orr Street, to the side of the Olympia Building, and across the road at the Bridgeton Cross railway station.

For visitor car parking, there is adequate parking in the surrounding streets and 2 disabled parking bays in Orr Street.

Travel planning information:

Walking: www.walkit.com/cities/glasgow

Journey planning: www.spt.co.uk or www.travelinescotland.com

Cycling: www.gobike.org or www.glasgowcyclemap.co.uk

