

Glasgow's Healthier Future Forum 20 Power, Health and Social Justice

Tuesday 28th November 2017
Radisson Blu Hotel, 301 Argyle Street, Glasgow G2 8DL

Programme

- 9.00 – 9.20 Coffee and registration
- 9.20 – 9.30 Welcome and introduction
Jill Muirie, Glasgow Centre for Population Health
- 9.30 – 10.00 Power as a health and social justice issue
Elinor Dickie, NHS Health Scotland
- 10.00 – 10.10 How power inequalities shape policy conversations, and what we can do about it?
Oliver Escobar, University of Edinburgh and What Works Scotland
- 10.10 – 10.20 Reflections on the national context
Alasdair McKinlay, Scottish Government
- 10.20 – 10.45 Questions and Discussion
- 10.45 – 11.00 Refreshments
- 11.00 – 11.25 “5 in 5” Session
1. Empowering marginalised people to effect change in their communities – Michael Riley, Aberdeenshire Alcohol and Drugs Partnership
 2. Empowering patients in the NHS – Cath Cooney & Gerry Power, the ALLIANCE
 3. The role of creative media in community empowerment– Angela Ross & Moya Crowley, Plantation Productions
 4. Evaluating community empowerment – Fiona Myers, NHS Health Scotland & Jill Muirie, Glasgow Centre for Population Health
 5. Open Space – Cat Tabbner, Glasgow Centre for Population Health & Elspeth Gracey, Community Health Exchange (CHEX)
- 11.30 – 12.30 Workshops
- 12.30 – 1.00 Feedback, comments and reflections
Carol Tannahill, Glasgow Centre for Population Health
- 1.00 Closing remarks, lunch and close

If you would like to follow or contribute to the event on Twitter, please use the hashtag #GHFF20